I have confirmation from Jessica Koburger from the State of Florida Department of Management Services that Macmillan Oil Company has been suspended from the State Bulk Fuel Contract #405-000-10-1. The alternative vendor for bulk fuel purchases under the contract for Palm Beach County is Mansfield Oil Company.

Anticipating that there might be some negative consequence with Macmillan Oil Company relating to the previous allegations against them, we sought and receive approval from City Commission on 10-7-14 to purchase bulk fuel from Mansfield Oil Company, through June 30, 2016 which was when the contract was set to expire. The contract has now been amended to expire on June 30, 2019. Is it possible to obtain authorization from the City Manager to purchase fuel from Mansfield Oil Company until such time as we can seek City Commission approval for Mansfield Oil through June 30, 2019?

The amended contract, with Mansfield Oil on pages 26 through 30, can be found here: http://www.dms.myflorida.com/content/download/55893/236090/file/405-000-10-1%20Executed%20Contract%20and%20Amendments.pdf

Kevin,

It was a pleasure speaking with you, this morning. Per our conversation, Macmillan Oil Company, LLC, has been suspended from the State Term Contract. You may use other Vendors in the Contract that offer services in your area.

Respectfully,
