

After years of planning and construction, the Osceola Park Neighborhood project is finally coming to fruition. Construction began in July 2020, and the final phase is expected to be finished in one to two months. The contractor is currently addressing the final items, such as green areas, swales, and drainage. More

A Bittersweet Farewell for Shirley Johnson

While we are sad that Shirley Johnson's term as a CRA Board Chair has come to an end, we are so thankful and grateful for her service, input and insight throughout the years! More

Meet Sarah E. Huang, Resident Artist at the Arts Warehouse

If you're interested in experiencing "surreal and visceral art, with brushstrokes that tangle together in a frenzy, and forms that are raw and primal, highlighted by a chromatic color palette," then you must check out Resident Artist Sarah E. Huang's solo exhibit "Aging & Maturing" at the Arts Warehouse. More

The Delray Beach CRA Affordable Housing Efforts

It's more important than ever to ensure that all community members have necessary access to be able to grow with the City. One way we do this is to offer affordable housing options to help keep our community members – and their businesses! – in the city they love so much. More
