During the event and its setup, off-duty police officers will be present to regulate traffic and ensure safety.

Vehicle access will not be permitted within the designated event area, as indicated by the red circle on the map. Event parking will be available at the Delray Beach Health Center county parking lots. From there, guests will follow the walking routes shown with red dashed lines, leading directly to the event.

In addition, event staff will be stationed along the pathways and throughout the venue to provide directions and assistance to all attendees.
