2022 Winter GreenMarket

“Shopping and eating, the GreenMarket is an international culinary experience for your taste buds,” said Lori Johnson, Delray GreenMarket Manager. “You can enjoy an al fresco lunch in the park feasting on empanadas, tamales, Chesapeake Bay shrimp salad and crab cakes, clam chowder, paella, ceviche, Indian cuisine, Italian ices and more!”. “It has been quite a journey – literally and figuratively – to get to this point and we are all excited that the renovation turned out so well,” said Christine Tibbs, CRA Assistant Director, who recognizes that the community has been a part of the process since the beginning. More

“Attending the FRA conference is a great experience because I learned from other CRAs work/projects, current challenges/topics for CRAs and make connections with other professionals or people involved in CRAs mission. I always look forward to attending this conference and seeing people from other CRAs,” Cabrera said. “My favorite part are the sessions and the awards ceremony where projects are recognized statewide.
