It has been two and a half months since the groundbreaking ceremony on at the 95 SW 5th Ave Project in the Central Business District and construction has been chipping away ever since. The groundbreaking ceremony was an opportunity for the community, city officials and construction crew to celebrate the commencement of the project that is expected to help the NW/SW 5th Avenue area flourish. Now, a new project update has been shared. More

The rotating exhibitions at the Arts Warehouse always highlight the immeasurable talent of artists in how they create, curate, and express their art. Delray residents get the opportunity to see and experience the magic that the Arts Warehouse creates when it takes on a new exhibit. More

Not only did we learn a lot about what other Florida-based CRAs are doing to improve and transforms their districts at the recent 2023 Florida Redevelopment Association Annual Conference, we also won an award! More
