WHEREAS, the Land Development Regulations (“LDR”) of the City of Delray Beach (“City”) Code of Ordinances provide authority for the City Commission to amend, change, supplement, or repeal the LDR from time to time; and

WHEREAS, the Always Delray Comprehensive Plan supports a diversity of housing types; and

WHEREAS, the City has determined that there is a severe shortage of affordable and workforce housing in the City of Delray Beach; and

WHEREAS, the Always Delray Comprehensive Plan Policy NDC 2.8.1 allows for a greater range of housing choices and increased affordable housing options by allowing innovative housing types, such as one accessory dwelling unit per lot, tiny houses, cohousing arrangements, or cottage housing, subsequent to evaluation and receipt of public input; and

WHEREAS, the Delray Beach Community Redevelopment Agency commissioned a study to determine the feasibility of allowing accessory dwelling units on residentially zoned parcels in the Northwest and Southwest Neighborhoods, as defined in the West Atlantic Master Plan, as a strategy to address affordable housing shortages; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 12-26 proposes the adoption of regulations to allow Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) within the Northwest and Southwest Neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Florida Statutes 163.3174(4), the Planning and Zoning Board for the City of Delray Beach, sitting as Local Planning Agency, considered Ordinance No. 12-26 at a public hearing on January 26, 2026, and voted 6 to 0 to recommend that the proposed text amendments be approved, finding that the request and approval thereof is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan and meets the criteria set forth in the Land Development Regulations; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF DELRAY BEACH, FLORIDA, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The recitations set forth above are incorporated herein.

Section 2. The City Commission of the City of Delray Beach finds the Ordinance is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.

Section 3. Chapter 4, “Zoning Regulations,” Article 4.3, “District Regulations,” Section 4.3.2 “Determining Use,” Subsection (B), “Categories of Use,” of the Land Development Regulations of the City of Delray Beach, Florida is amended as follows:

(B) Categories of use. All uses shall be categorized pursuant to the following:

- (1) Principal use. A principal use is allowed, by right, within a zoning district provided that all development regulations are met. A principal use must be conducted on a site in order to have accessory or ancillary uses on that site.
- (2) Accessory use. An accessory, or ancillary use, shall not be established before the principal use, and falls into one of three categories as follows:
 - (a) A use ~~which~~ that is otherwise allowed as a principal use but is subordinate in intensity to other principal uses (retail sales and business offices).
 - (b) A use ~~which is~~ associated with a principal use ~~and which~~ that is specifically identified within the zoning district as an accessory use (for example, a garage used in conjunction with a single family house). Accessory uses provided in conjunction with a residential use may not be rented or used separately, unless specifically provided herein.
 - (c) A use ~~which is~~ associated with a principal or accessory use by virtue of supplemental district requirements (for example, a parking lot required for a multiple family use).

~~No building which contains an accessory use pursuant to (b) may be rented or used as a separate dwelling unit, except as a guest cottage. No accessory structure shall be constructed before the principal structure is under construction.~~

Section 4. Chapter 4, “Zoning Regulations,” Article 4.3, “District Regulations,” Section 4.3.3 “Special Requirements for Specific Uses,” Subsection (K), “Home-Based Business,” of the Land Development Regulations of the City of Delray Beach, Florida is amended as follows:

- (K) Home-based business. A business is considered a home-based business if it operates from a residential ~~dwelling unit~~ property and meets the following criteria:
 - (1) Employees must reside ~~in the dwelling unit~~ on the residential property. Two additional employees that reside elsewhere may also work at the residential ~~dwelling unit~~ property. The business may have additional ~~remote~~ employees who do not work at the residential ~~dwelling unit~~ property.
 - (2) - (3) (These subsections shall remain in full force and effect as adopted.)
 - (4) One exterior sign up to one square foot in area may be affixed to the ~~principal residential~~ structure where the business is located.

(5) ~~No home-based business~~ Businesses shall not be conducted by residents in any accessory structures, except for home-based businesses in the primary or accessory residential structures.

(6) - (11) (These subsections shall remain in full force and effect as adopted.)

Section 5. Chapter 4, “Zoning Regulations,” Article 4.3, “District Regulations,” Section 4.3.3 “Special Requirements for Specific Uses,” Subsection (Q), “Accessory structures,” of the Land Development Regulations of the City of Delray Beach, Florida is amended as follows:

(Q) ~~Guest cottage~~ Accessory Residential Structures.

~~(1) — Can only be used by members of the family occupying the principal dwelling, their nonpaying guests, (except in Bed and Breakfast Inns), or persons employed for service on the premises.~~

~~(2) — The guest cottage shall not occupy more than one twentieth of the lot area and in no case shall exceed a floor area of 700 square feet. Guest cottages greater than 350 square feet are subject to the standards in Section 4.3.3(QQ)(3).~~

~~(3) — The structure shall be located to observe the setback requirements as imposed for the principal structure.~~

~~(4) — When located on individually designated historic properties or within designated historic districts, the structure shall not exceed the height of the principal structure.~~

~~(5) — Only one guest cottage shall be allowed on a property.~~

(1) General Standards. To promote aesthetically harmonious neighborhoods, accessory structures in residential zoning districts must comply with the regulations herein.

(a) The height of an accessory structure shall not exceed the height of the principal structure. This limitation does not apply to Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs).

(b) The floor area of an accessory structure shall not exceed 40 percent of the floor area of the principal structure. This limitation does not apply to ADUs.

(c) Accessory structures larger than 350 square feet or taller than ten feet are subject to the following design standards:

1. The accessory structure must be designed with a similar architectural style and be finished with materials similar in appearance to the principal structure.
2. Foundation landscaping, in accordance with Section 4.6.16, must be provided along the entire building frontage, if visible from the right-of-way.
3. All doors, including garage and overhead doors, must have a decorative appearance consistent with the overall architectural style of the primary residential structure.
4. Blank walls visible from the right-of-way are prohibited. Fenestration consistent with the design and appearance of the principal structure and/or design treatments such as trellises with climbing vines or other plant materials, or architectural details may be used to avoid the appearance of blank walls.

(2) Guest Cottage.

- (a) Guest Cottages are accessory residential structures for use by members of the family occupying the principal dwelling, their nonpaying guests (except in Bed and Breakfast Inns), or persons employed for service on the premises.
- (b) The guest cottage, whether detached or attached to the principal structure, shall not occupy more than one-twentieth of the lot area and shall not exceed a floor area of 700 square feet.
- (c) The guest cottage shall comply with the minimum setbacks required for the principal structure.
- (d) Only one guest cottage shall be allowed on a property.
- (e) The guest cottage shall not have a kitchen.
- (f) A guest cottage shall not have a separate water or electric meter.

(3) Accessory dwelling unit (ADU).

- (a) Purpose and Intent. ADUs are accessory residential structures intended to expand affordable housing options for very-low, low, and moderate income households within Delray Beach, and to support wealth-building.
- (b) Only one ADU shall be allowed on a property.

(c) Architectural Requirements.

1. All ADUs regardless of size are subject to the design standards in Subsection (1)(c), supra.
2. All ADUs shall have an independent entrance.
3. For ADUs located in front of the primary structure, a porch facing the street must be provided.

(d) Occupancy.

1. A homesteaded property owner or family member must reside on site, either in the principal dwelling unit or in the ADU.
2. An ADU shall not consist of more than two bedrooms.
3. An ADU shall not be used for transient residential use, lodging, or short-term vacation rentals.

(e) Affordability standards.

1. ADUs may only be leased as workforce housing. A family member occupying an ADU is not subject to workforce housing income restrictions or limitations.
2. ADUs must comply with the requirements of Section 4.7.9. – Accessory dwelling unit (ADU).

(f) Development standards.

1. ADUs are not included in the calculation of density.
2. ADUs are subject to the standards in Table 4.3.3(Q), except that ADUs with Central Business District Zoning follow the setback and frontage standards in 4.4.13.
3. A detached ADU may be located to the front, rear, or side yard of the principal structure.

4. A detached ADU is only allowed when the principal structure is two stories or less.
5. ADUs must provide independent sanitation, living, cooking and sleeping facilities from the principal dwelling unit.

¹ Garages or other accessory structures attached to the ADU shall not be included in the maximum floor area calculation. Open-air elements, such as porches or balconies, shall not be included in the maximum floor area calculation.

(g) Parking and access.

1. One parking space shall be provided for each ADU.
2. A walkway (concrete, pavers, gravel etc.) shall be provided from the parking space(s) to the main access point of the ADU.
3. Vehicular access and parking are allowed from improved alleys. Parallel parking along the alley is allowed within the rear yard.
4. For lots with 50 feet of frontage or less, driveways may be set back a minimum of two feet from the side interior property lines.

Section 6. Chapter 4, “Zoning Regulations,” Article 4.3, “District Regulations,” Section 4.3.3 “Special Requirements for Specific Uses,” Subsection (QQ), “Accessory structures,” of the Land Development Regulations of the City of Delray Beach, Florida is repealed in its entirety:

~~(QQ) Accessory structures. To promote aesthetically harmonious neighborhoods, accessory structures in residential zoning districts must comply with the regulations herein.~~

- ~~(1) — The height of an accessory structure shall not exceed the height of the principal structure and is not permitted to exceed two stories. Screen enclosures without a solid roof are excluded from this limit.~~
- ~~(2) — The floor area of an accessory structure shall not exceed 40 percent of the floor area of the principal structure.~~
- ~~(3) — Accessory structures larger than 350 square feet or taller than ten feet are subject to the following standards:
 - ~~(a) — Must be designed with a similar architectural style and be finished with materials similar in appearance to the principal structure.~~
 - ~~(b) — Must provide foundation landscaping, in accordance with Section 4.6.16, along the entire building frontage, if visible from the right of way.~~
 - ~~(c) — All doors, including garage and overhead doors, must have a decorative appearance consistent with the overall architectural style of the primary residential structure.~~
 - ~~(d) — Blank walls visible from the right of way are prohibited. Fenestration consistent with the design and appearance of the principal structure and/or design treatments such as trellises with climbing vines or other plant materials, or architectural details may be used to avoid the appearance of blank walls.~~~~
