The Delray Beach Summer GreenMarket is Back

A standout feature of the Summer GreenMarket is its bi-weekly Chef Showcase. During these events, local chefs are invited to shop the market and create on-the-spot recipes using seasonal ingredients—offering both inspiration and education for home cooks looking to elevate their summer meals. It's not only a crowd-pleaser, but a great way to discover new ways to use the ingredients available at the Market. More

Ongoing Delray Beach CRA Initiatives: Key Project Updates for Summer 2025

Construction on the new commercial building at 95 SW 5th Avenue is almost complete. This project will provide affordable rental space designed to support healthcare and wellness service providers in the area. Summer GreenMarket Is in Full Swing CRA Work Space Expanding to Weekdays More

Kilti, Revisted Exhibition at Arts Warehouse

The exhibition features a mix of older, historical pieces and works by contemporary artists, creating what Grace describes as “a historical exploration of Haitian Art.” The vibrant paintings, beaded and sequined voodoo flags, and metal wall sculptures offer visitors an intimate glimpse into the celebrations, daily life, spirituality, and natural beauty of Haiti.
