Historic Preservation:
The Monterey House

Originally relocated and renovated by the CRA in 1993, The Monterey House was sold to the City of Delray Beach, which then leased it to various tenants. “In 2003, after the City’s tenant, the Judge Knott Center for Historic Preservation and the Delray Beach Historical Society, vacated the Monterey House, the CRA purchased the property from the City,” explains Christine Tibbs, Assistant Director at the Delray Beach CRA. Small businesses are essential to the fabric of Delray Beach, contributing to the city’s unique charm, creating jobs, and driving the local economy. The CRA is always looking for ways to support their growth, and this initiative is an exciting opportunity to do just that. More

CRA Staff Spotlight:
Mackenzie Weber, CRA
Redevelopment Coordinator

One of my favorite parts of the job is that I get to interact with people from all walks of life within the community and they all have a unique perspective,” she said. As her role expanded, Mackenzie found herself involved in a wide variety of projects, each contributing to her professional development. More
