Good Morning Sir,

Per our conversation last night, IT will reconfigure your system that functions more efficiently for your office. We would like to ensure the back up solution is working properly and ordered it last night. Once it arrives, we will configure it and work to get the system back to your office around your schedule. We anticipate all items delivered and configured before the end of this week and this timeline was acceptable with you at the time.

If there is a need to expedite or adjust, please reach out to me.

Thank you,

Jessica Cusson | IT Director
