Profile

NOTE: Each Applicant is advised to attend at least one meeting prior to applying for appointment.

Board Member applications must be received no later than ten (10) business days prior to the first City Commission Meeting at which the Commissioner is eligible to nominate and appoint the prospective board member.

The City Commission appoints members of the boards and committees. All positions are voluntary and members are not compensated for their time. However, the individuals who serve on the boards and committees provide an invaluable service to the city. Their advice and expertise on a wide range of topics assist the City Commission in its decision-making process.

In general, individuals may serve on only one board or committee at a given time, with the exception of ad-hoc committees or task forces. Most advisory groups meet at least once a month, however, there are varying degrees of commitment, depending on the board. Membership requirements vary with each board and committee

As a 9-year resident of the city of Delray Beach, I care deeply about the integration and enhancement of the city through the strategic planning of thoughtfully selected and meaningful works of art. I believe that everyone should have access to the arts. Being a member of the Advisory Board would allow for me to serve my own community with my experience and skills in visual arts. As an experienced educator of 25 years, understanding how art can be assessed, selected, and curated is important to helping move Delray Beach into new phases of celebrating arts and culture in our city. As a past member of the advisory board, I am eager to continue the work of my colleagues and to bring excellence in the arts to our village by the sea.
