

RECOGNITION IN MEMORY OF IRVING ADAMS, JR.

On behalf of the City of Delray Beach City Commission, we pay tribute to Irving Adams Jr., for his 30 years of his incredible service to the City of Delray Beach as a Recreation Supervisor at the Community Center.

Irving was more than just a colleague – he was family to us all. He was caring, respectful, dependable, and thoughtful, always bringing warmth and kindness to everyone he met.

If there's one word that describes Irving best, it's caring. He greeted everyone with a smile, took the time to say hello, and could hold the best conversations on just about any topic. His presence made our community stronger, and his absence will be deeply felt.

While we mourn his loss, we also celebrate the lasting impact he made on so many lives. Our thoughts are with his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. Rest in peace, Irving – you will never be forgotten.

We are honored to recognize the memory of Irving Adams Jr. who will be deeply missed by everyone in the City of Delray Beach, Florida community.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Carney, Jr.,
Mayor
