

CRA Staff Spotlight: Jamilah Johnson

Her path to the CRA was driven by purpose. “Once I started researching the organization and learning more about the mission behind the CRA, I was inspired,” she says. “I loved that it was about helping the community grow and thrive—I immediately wanted to be part of something so meaningful.” More

STORIES

Being able to exhibit such a large number of local artists in one exhibition is a wonderful opportunity to give these artists an audience that will hopefully expand even after the exhibition is over. More

Tenant Spotlight: Primos Precision Grooming

Located in a CRA-owned property, Primos has directly benefited from improvements made through the agency’s investment in the NW 5th Avenue corridor. “Them making the improvements to the building and the surrounding area makes me, as a business owner, feel appreciated. The new roof and insulation made the biggest impact on my business and bottom line.” More
