4.4 SELLER represents that SELLER will not, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing, without PURCHASER'S prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, except in the ordinary course of business, create by SELLER'S consent any encumbrances on the Property. For purposes of this provision the term "encumbrances" shall mean any liens, claims, options, or other encumbrances, encroachments, rights-of-way, leases, easements, covenants, conditions or restrictions.

4.5 SELLER represents that there are no parties other than SELLER in possession of the Property or any portion of the Property as a lessee.

4.6 SELLER shall not list or offer the Property for sale or solicit or negotiate offers to purchase the Property while this Agreement is in effect. SELLER shall use SELLER'S best efforts to maintain the Property in its present condition so as to ensure that it shall remain substantially in the same condition from the conclusion of the forty five (45) day Inspection Period to the Closing Date.

4.7 To the best of SELLER's knowledge, Hazardous Materials (as defined below) are not present at, in, on or under the Property, any Site, or any part thereof. The Seller has not received any notice of or information reflecting any violation of Environmental Laws (as defined below) related to the Property or any Site (or any portion thereof) or the presence or release of Hazardous Materials on or from the Property or any Site (or any portion thereof). to the Property or any Site, to the knowledge of SELLER, is any such investigation, remediation, administrative order, consent order, agreement or settlement threatened, planned or anticipated. The SELLER has not engaged in or permitted any release, spill, generation, disposal, storage, or handling of any Hazardous Materials on the Property, any Site, or any part thereof. There are no underground storage tanks located on, in, or under the Property or any Site. The term "Environmental Law or Laws" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. 9601, et. seq.), the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, as amended (49 U.S.C. Appendix 1801, et. seq.), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 9601, et. seq.), and the Toxic Substances Control Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. 2601, et. seq.) and all other federal laws and regulations governing the environment, including laws relating to petroleum and petroleum products, together with their implementing guidelines, and all state, regional, county, municipal and other local laws, regulations and ordinances that are equivalent or similar to the federal laws and regulations recited above or that purport to regulate Hazardous Materials. The term "Hazardous Materials" means, without limitation, any substance, material, waste, pollutant or contaminant listed or defined as hazardous or toxic under any Environmental Law, including without limitation, flammable, explosive or radioactive material, lead paint, asbestos, PCBs, urea formaldehyde, medical waste, radioactive waste, mold, petroleum and petroleum products or constituents, methane and any other toxic or hazardous material. SELLER will give immediate oral and written notice to PURCHASER of SELLER's receipt of any written notice involving a violation threat of violation or suspected violation of any Environmental Law. Seller has no knowledge of any tenant or occupant at the Property who is storing any Hazardous Materials at the Property or any Site.

4.8 SELLER represents that the Property is zoned as Central Business District.

5. EVIDENCE OF TITLE.

5.1 Title to the Property. SELLER shall convey to PURCHASER at Closing, by delivery of a General Warranty Deed, title to the subject Property. PURCHASER shall, within fifteen (15) days of the commencement of the Inspection Period, secure a title insurance commitment issued by a title insurance underwriter approved and selected by PURCHASER for the Property insuring PURCHASER'S title to the Property subject only to those exceptions set forth in the commitment. The costs and expenses relative to the issuance of a title commitment and an owner's title policy shall be borne by the PURCHASER.

PURCHASER shall have fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving said commitment to examine the title commitment. If PURCHASER objects to any exception to title as shown in the title commitment, PURCHASER, prior to ten (10) days of expiration of the Inspection Period, shall notify SELLER in writing specifying the specific exception(s) to which it objects. Any objection(s) of which PURCHASER has so notified SELLER, and which SELLER chooses to cure, shall be cured by SELLER so as to enable the removal of said objection(s) from the title commitment within ten (10) days after PURCHASER has provided notice to SELLER. Within five (5) days after the expiration of SELLER'S time to cure any objection, SELLER shall send to PURCHASER a notice in writing (a "cure notice") stating either (1) that the objection has been cured and in such case enclosing evidence of such cure, or (ii) that SELLER is either unable to cure or has chosen not to cure such objection. If SELLER shall be unable or unwilling to cure all objections within the time period set forth in the preceding sentence, then PURCHASER may (a) terminate this Agreement by written notice to the SELLER within five (5) days after receipt of a cure notice specifying an uncured objection, in which event all instruments and monies held by the Escrow Agent shall be immediately returned to PURCHASER; or (b) accept such title as Seller is able to convey with a reduction or abatement of the Purchase Price.

5.2. Survey and Legal Description. Within ten (10) days of the commencement of the Inspection Period, PURCHASER at PURCHASER'S own expense shall order: (i) a survey prepared by a registered land surveyor or engineer licensed in the State of Florida showing the boundaries of the Property, and the location of any easements thereon and certifying the number of acres (to the nearest one thousandth acre) of land contained in the Property, all buildings, improvements and encroachments; and (ii) a correct legal description of the Property which, upon approval thereof by PURCHASER and SELLER (not to be unreasonably withheld), shall be the legal description used in the deed of conveyance. The survey and legal description shall be prepared and certified by a surveyor licensed and registered in the State of Florida and shall comply with the requirements of the survey map established in connection with the issuance of an owner's title insurance policy on the Property. The survey shall be certified to PURCHASER and the title insurance company issuing the title insurance.

In the event the survey shows any material encroachments, strips, gores, or any portion of the land non-contiguous to any other portion of the Property or any other matter materially affecting the intended use of the Property or marketability of title to the Property (any such matter is herein called a "survey objection" and treated as a title defect), PURCHASER shall have a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of the survey by PURCHASER within which to approve or disapprove any survey objection and to give notice to SELLER of any disapproval thereof indicating in reasonable detail the nature and reasons for PURCHASER'S objection. PURCHASER agrees that it will not arbitrarily or unreasonably withhold its approval of any such survey objection and that PURCHASER will attempt to approve any such survey objection which does not affect the marketability of title or materially interfere with PURCHASER'S use of the Property. In the event PURCHASER provides a notice of disapproval of a survey objection to SELLER, the rights and obligations of the parties respecting such survey objections shall be governed by Section 5.1 hereof such that the parties shall have the same rights and objections as though such survey objection objected to was a new exception to title which was discovered and objected to within the contemplation of Section 5.1.

6. PURCHASER'S REPRESENTATIONS.

PURCHASER hereby represents and warrants to the best of PURCHASER'S knowledge that all of the following are true and correct:

(a) PURCHASER has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to assume and perform all of its obligations hereunder.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transaction contemplated hereunder on the part of the PURCHASER do not and will not violate the corporate or organizational documents of PURCHASER and will not conflict with or result in the breach of any condition or provision, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any of the terms of any contract, mortgage, lien, lease, agreement, indenture, instrument or judgment to which the PURCHASER is a party.

(c) No action by any federal, state, municipal or other governmental department, board, bureau or instrumentality is necessary to make this Agreement a valid instrument binding upon PURCHASER in accordance with its terms and conditions.

All of the representations, warranties and covenants of PURCHASER contained in this Agreement or in any other document, delivered to SELLER in connection with the transaction contemplated herein shall be true and correct in all material respects and not in default at the time of Closing, just as though they were made at such time.

Each of the following events or occurrences ("Conditions Precedents") shall be a condition precedent to PURCHASER'S obligation to close this transaction:

In the event any portion of the Property is destroyed, rendered unleaseable or dysfunctional by fire or other casualty then the following shall apply:

(a) If the damage, as determined by the insurance adjuster, is not more than Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00): (i) PURCHASER shall complete settlement and all insurance proceeds relating to the improvements damaged by such casualty loss shall be paid to the PURCHASER, and (ii) SELLER shall assign to PURCHASER on the date of Closing the full amount of any proceeds payable under SELLER'S fire and extended coverage insurance policy applicable to said damage;

(b) If the damage, as determined by the insurance adjuster, is more than Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00) DOLLARS, PURCHASER shall have the option to (i) complete the settlement hereunder and collect all available insurance proceeds relating to the improvements damaged by such casualty loss, in which case SELLER shall pay to PURCHASER on the date of Closing the full amount of any deductible under SELLER'S fire and extended coverage insurance policy, or (ii) terminate this Agreement and receive a refund of entire deposit and interest. SELLER warrants that it shall maintain until the date of the Closing adequate "All Risk" property insurance; and:

(c) In the event the Property, or any portion thereof, is condemned by any governmental authority under its power of eminent domain or becomes the subject of a notice of condemnation, prior to Closing, PURCHASER may elect to terminate this Agreement, in which event the entire deposit and interest shall be returned to PURCHASER and neither party shall have any further claim against the other, or PURCHASER may elect to complete settlement hereunder, in which event SELLER shall assign to PURCHASER all of SELLER'S right, title and interest in and to any condemnation awards, whether pending or already paid applicable to the loss of the real property and the improvements located thereon, and there shall be no adjustment to the Purchase Price.

10.1 Ad Valorem Taxes. PURCHASER and SELLER shall comply with Section 196.295, Florida Statutes, with respect to the payment of prorated ad valorem taxes for the year of closing into escrow with the Palm Beach County Tax Collector's Office. In the event that, following the Closing, the actual amount of assessed real property tax on the Property for the current year is higher than any estimate of such tax used for purposes of the Closing, the parties shall re-prorate any amounts paid or credited based on such estimate as if paid in November.
