Unfortunately, I do not get to interact with as many employees as I would like. When I do, however, I always feel fortunate that we have so many wonderful employees.

Parks & Rec always exceeds my expectations, and I feel it's worth noting. Our events are absolutely outstanding! People so enjoyed the Christmas Tree, parades, Easter event, the Pride event, the movie nights, and the free concerts, just to name a few events. The new parks going up throughout the City are phenomenal.

Events and parks aside, what is most appreciated is the positive can-do attitude of the individuals in this department (and public works).

We had a recent situation where a group did not confirm their booking at the Field House. When they showed up unexpected the Parks & Rec team, along with Juan Vasques of Public Works, immediately prepared the Field House so that the event could go on. The team could have turned away this group as they did not confirm the booking, but instead they pulled it together at a moment's notice and with smiling faces.
