Delray Beach Community Land Trust

The DBCLT is an independent, 501(c) 3 nonprofit organization that was formed by community stakeholders in December 2005 to preserve permanent affordability of homeownership and rental housing in the City of Delray Beach for very low to moderate income households. The organization was birthed by the Delray Beach Community Redevelopment Agency (DBCRA) in 2006. The city, DBCRA and others have donated land to the DBCLT, which is held in trust protecting the public's investment. The City of Delray Beach, Palm Beach County and other entities provide additional subsidies to DBCLT homeowners to further increase the affordability of the homes. The DBCLT is governed by a tri-party twelve-member board of directors that is represented by the public/general and homeowners. Membership in the DBCLT is available to anyone that wishes to support the DBCLT in its mission of providing high quality, permanently affordable housing.
