

Green Implementation Advancement Board

2024 Annual Report

February 2024

Year In Review and Future Priorities

CLIMATE ACTION PLAN

REDUCTION OF GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS

TREES

SOLID WASTE AND WASTE REDUCTION

CLIMATE ACTION PLAN

In Review

- Memo to Commission recommending the development of a Climate Action plan
- Review of other Climate Action Plans
- ---

Ongoing and Future Priorities

- 50% emission reduction by 2030
- City specific recommendations
- Work on identifying goals for a City specific CAP
- Environmental justice
- Education and outreach

REDUCTION OF GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS

In Review

- Green Building Ordinance
 - In 2019 the GIAB recommended to Commission a requirement for all new development 5,000+sf to obtain LEED Certification of minimum Gold Level or equivalent
 - Ordinance No. 30-22 adopted November 1, 2022 (effective November 1, 2023)
 - Minimum Level Certification for 15,000 to 50,000 sq ft buildings
 - Silver Level or equivalent certification for 50,000+ sq ft buildings
- Greenhouse Gas Emissions Reduction Planning presented to Commission by OSAR on September 18th

Ongoing and Future Priorities

- 50% emission reduction by 2030
 - Greenhouse Gas Reduction Program focusing on transportation and buildings
 - Environmental justice
 - Education and outreach
-

TREES

In Review

- Status of project
- ---
- ---

Ongoing and Future Priorities

- Tree Trust Fund updates
- Monitor survivability of trees planted
- Tree protection
- Environmental justice
- Education and outreach

SOLID WASTE AND WASTE REDUCTION

In Review

- Memo to Commission to support legislation which would address the major environmental impacts caused by plastic pollution
- ---
- ---

Ongoing and Future Priorities

- Single-use plastics (in addition to straws)
- State legislative priorities regarding preemptions
- Recycling - data collection, Recycle Right Events
- Environmental justice
- Education and Outreach

THANK YOU

Evan Orellana
Chairperson of the Green Implementation Advancement Board

evan-orellana@mydelraybeach.com

