Any vacancy in the membership of the Commission, other than at the close of a regular term, shall be filled according to the following procedure.

(A) Vacancy in Office of Commissioner. In the event of a vacancy other than in the office of the Mayor, the remaining Commissioners, including the Mayor, shall appoint, by a majority vote, a qualified person to fill the vacancy.

- (1) If the term of office in which the vacancy occurs expires on the last Thursday in March following the next regular City election, the person so appointed shall only serve until that date.
- (2) If the vacancy occurs sixty (60) or more days preceding the date of the next regular City election, and if the term of office in which the vacancy occurs does not expire on the last Thursday in March following that election, the person so appointed shall serve until the last Thursday in March and the remainder of the unexpired term shall be filled at that election.

The Commission shall call a special election to fill the vacancy. The special election shall be held within sixty (60) calendar days of the second regular meeting.

(B) Vacancy in Office of Mayor.

- (1) If a vacancy in the office of Mayor occurs at least sixty (60) or more calendar days preceding the date of the next regular City election, there will be an election to fill the Mayor's seat which will be held at the time of the next regular City election. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Mayor less than sixty (60) calendar days preceding the date of the regular City election, the Mayor shall be elected at a special election to be held on the second Tuesday in May. If a special election is held to fill the office of Mayor, those persons who previously qualified to run for the Mayor's seat and other candidates who qualify pursuant to this Charter and Chapter 34 of the Code of Ordinances may run for the Mayor's seat to be filled at the special election. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Mayor elected at the special election shall assume office at the first regular meeting after being elected.
- (2) When a vacancy occurs in the office of Mayor, the Vice-Mayor shall automatically succeed to the office of Mayor and shall serve until the last Thursday in March following the next regular City election. Thereafter, the Vice-Mayor shall return to his or her former seat and complete the remainder of his or her Commission term if any part thereof remains unexpired. - (3) The succession of the office of Mayor by the Vice-Mayor shall create a vacancy in the Commission. - (4) If the Vice-Mayor is unable or unwilling to succeed to the office of Mayor, then the Deputy Vice-Mayor shall succeed to the office of Mayor. If the Deputy Vice-Mayor is unable or unwilling to succeed to the office of Mayor, the Commission shall then select a Mayor from the remaining Commissioners. If the Commission is unable to select a Mayor by the end of the second regular meeting after the vacancy then a special election shall be held for the election of the Mayor.

- (5) If a vacancy occurs in the office of Vice-Mayor, the Deputy Vice-Mayor shall automatically become Vice-Mayor and a new Deputy Vice-Mayor shall be selected by the Commission. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Deputy Vice-Mayor, the Commission shall then select a new Deputy Vice-Mayor.

The person assuming the office of Mayor will be allowed to hold office for a maximum of six consecutive years. This shall apply to any Commissioner who has assumed the office of Mayor on or after the March 2013 municipal election. This extension of term limits does not apply in the case of the Mayor assuming the office of a Commissioner. The term "holding office" shall be defined as serving as Commissioner or Mayor. The term "consecutive years" shall not include any years served as a result of an appointment. Effective for those elected in March of the year 2003 and thereafter, a Commissioner or Mayor may complete the entire term to which they were elected, if a term limit is reached during an elected term.
