FF/PM Eric Grau and FF/PM Anthony Mariano were checking out their truck on the morning of Friday April 6, 2018 when they heard moaning and groaning coming from the side of the Fire Station. They went to investigate and found a homeless man lying on the ground uninjured and in no distress. He was moaning because the ground was uncomfortable. While evaluating the man they noticed he was obviously disheveled and his socks weren't even covering his feet. Without hesitation FF/PM Grau said hold on a second and went running inside the station. He came back with a pair of his own socks. Not only did he give the homeless man a pair of his socks he took the old socks off and put the new pair on the homeless man. He clearly went above and beyond the call of duty.
