EDUCATION ELEMENT

WHAT IS THE EDUCATION ELEMENT?

The Education Element describes how the City of Delray Beach through its partnerships with the School District of Palm Beach County, local private education providers, cultural organizations, and local business partners, supports efforts to provide high quality educational opportunities and services for residents of all ages within such a diverse community. Program support is strongly provided for student mentorships, leadership, and financial literacy opportunities as well as social, emotional and well-being support. Priorities for effective collaboration are also established among local education partners to reflect a shared commitment to educational excellence in programs and facilities.

The City recognizes lifelong learning opportunities are important for all segments of the population and strives to offer both formal and informal learning opportunities to maintain a high quality of life for its residents. A wide variety of lifelong learning opportunities are available within the city, offered by public, private, and cultural organizations. These partnerships enrich the community and will continue to be part of the City's educational strategy.
