Upon satisfaction of sections 15(a) and 15(b) the termination of the right to repurchase shall be promptly recorded.

The term "Commence Construction" means the initiation by PURCHASER of site preparation work for the Project, which shall, for purposes of this Section 16, include excavation, fencing of the site, installation of the construction trailer, clearing and any required relocation of utilities at the site provided the Closing has occurred.

The SELLER's right to repurchase and its terms and conditions herein shall be incorporated in a Memorandum of Agreement and the Deed executed by the parties prior to Closing and shall survive the Closing until the repurchase right is terminated. SELLER shall, within ten (10) business days after receipt of any such list, provide notice to PURCHASER as to whether SELLER disputes that any of the days set forth on that list would give rise to an extension of time for PURCHASER's performance based on Force Majeure. Any days claimed to be subject to the foregoing Force Majeure provision by PURCHASER which are not so disputed by SELLER within said time period shall be deemed approved by SELLER.

In the event of a dispute between SELLER and PURCHASER as to whether there has been a commencement of construction as provided in this Section or whether a claim for delay is valid or otherwise in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby shall be resolved and settled by mediation using a mutually acceptable third-party mediator. Such mediator shall be appointed upon the written demand of either party. Upon such appointment, the mediation shall be held within fifteen (15) days at a mutually agreeable site in Palm Beach County, Florida. The fees and expenses of such mediator shall be born equally by the parties hereto. In the event of the failure of the parties to settle the dispute by mediation, either party may bring the dispute for legal redress before the Circuit Court in and for Palm Beach County, Florida.

Notwithstanding anything in this agreement, should SELLER enact its right to repurchase, SELLER shall immediately return PURCHASER's Earnest Money, subject to the Public Benefits agreement.

This Section 15 shall survive Closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any repurchase rights granted herein shall be subject to and subordinate to any acquisition, development and/or construction loan and mortgage on the Property.

If any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be determined to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction (the "Offending Provision"), then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such term, covenant or condition to persons, entities or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each term, covenant and condition of this Agreement shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided however, that the parties affected by the Offending Provision shall endeavor in good faith, within sixty (60) days after the date such determination is made, to agree upon alternative provisions which shall have the same practical effect (and not enhance or expand any parties rights herein) as the Offending Provision and upon any agreement being reached, the new provision shall be incorporated into and form a part of this Agreement.

17. NO MERGER.

All warranties, representations, covenants, terms and conditions herein contained shall survive the delivery and recording of the Deed for a period of nine (9) months.

18. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO CLOSING AND CONTINGENCIES.

18.1 Conditions Precedent to Closing: SELLER's obligation to close the subject transaction is contingent upon the satisfaction of the following conditions:

(a) Financial Commitment. PURCHASER shall provide, no later than sixty (60) days prior to Closing, documentation certifying to SELLER, PURCHASER's receipt of a financial commitment letter from a United States financial lending institution or private equity ("Financial Commitment") for the lending of funds in an amount not less than seventy percent (70%) of estimated acquisition, development and construction costs required to complete the Project; the Financial Commitment shall be utilized to acquire the Property and to construct and develop the Project, as generally described in PURCHASER's response to the RFP issued by the SELLER, which response was accepted by the SELLER, and as otherwise specified in this Agreement, unless, however, a lesser amount of financing is determined by PURCHASER in PURCHASER's sole and absolute discretion to be satisfactory upon terms acceptable to PURCHASER. PURCHASER shall deliver to SELLER those pertinent provisions of the Financial Commitment evidencing PURCHASER's acknowledgment and the financial institution's agreement to finance the Project in accordance with the Financial Commitment.

(b) PURCHASER's delivery to SELLER, ten (10) days prior to Closing, of a letter of credit issued by a financial institution reasonably satisfactory to SELLER or a performance bond from PURCHASER's General Contractor. The letter of credit, if used, must be in a form and amount reasonably satisfactory to SELLER or if a performance bond, it shall be commercially reasonable and acceptable to PURCHASER's lender shall be acceptable to SELLER. The letter of credit or performance bond shall serve to guarantee completion of construction of the Project in accordance with the approved Site Plan and this Agreement. PURCHASER shall be permitted to submit a commercially reasonable performance bond. The letter of credit, if used, shall be specifically callable by SELLER in the event of the PURCHASER's failure to construct the Project in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Site Plan approved by the City. The letter of credit shall be in an amount equal to one hundred ten (110%) percent of the budgeted costs for the construction of the Project or in the case of a Performance Bond, one hundred (100%) percent of the budgeted costs for the construction of the Project (excluding FF&E), in accordance with the Site Plan, design plan, and approved plans and specifications of the Project. Not later than the time the letter of credit or performance bond is required to be delivered to SELLER, PURCHASER shall also cause to be delivered to SELLER an agreement of the architects and engineers who prepared the plans for the Project which provides that if SELLER calls the letter of credit, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, SELLER shall have the right to utilize said plans to construct the Project, as to its respective interest in said plans.

(c) Prior to site plan approval the SELLER reserves unto itself and PURCHASER acknowledges and agrees that SELLER shall have the right to approve the architectural design and the Site Plan for the Project which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

18.2 Contingencies: The SELLER's obligation to close the transaction is contingent upon the following:

- a) PURCHASER shall submit an application for the abandonment of alleyways, if necessary, and the SELLER will cooperate in executing all applicable applications and processing the approvals, abandonment of alley ways and issuance of building permits;
- b) Execution by PURCHASER and SELLER of a Public Benefit Agreement to be finalized within two hundred-ten days of the Effective Date;
- c) Execution by both the PURCHASER and SELLER of a Memorandum setting forth the SELLER's Right of Repurchase and termination of the right to repurchase to be held in escrow;
- d) Execution by both Purchaser and Seller of Parking Maintenance Agreement;
- e) Execution of the Relocation Plan and the Restrictive Covenants as referenced herein.

19. Restrictive Covenant: In consideration of the delivery by SELLER of the Deed, PURCHASER agrees and acknowledges that, a Restrictive Covenant (which Restrictive Covenant shall be subordinate to any future mortgage loan) shall be executed and recorded against the Property at the Closing contemplated by the terms of this Agreement. The PURCHASER agrees and acknowledges in consideration of the nominal Purchase Price that it agrees to and accepts a Restrictive Covenant to be recorded in the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida to constitute a covenant running with the Property. The Restrictive Covenant shall require the PURCHASER to pay to the SELLER the sum of $4,000,000.00, but only in the event the PURCHASER conveys more than a 49% interest in the Property and where the principals of PURCHASER, Daniel Lebensohn and Greg Friedman are no longer principals of the grantee. This Restrictive Covenant and the sum due therein shall only be triggered if the aforementioned conveyance occurs after the SELLER conveys the Deed to PURCHASER and prior to the issuance of the final certificate of occupancy issued by the City for the entire Project. The Restrictive Covenant shall be automatically terminated (and no longer have any legal or binding effect) at the time the final certificate of occupancy is issued for the Project, which termination shall be executed by the SELLER upon Seller conveying the Deed to PURCHASER and held in escrow to be released upon the issuance of the final certificate of occupancy. This section shall not prevent transfers to principals' family members or for estate planning purposes. A pledge to PURCHASER's lender shall also not trigger this section.
