Coming this season - SNAP at the Delray Beach GreenMarket

"The stated purpose of the SNAP program is to help individuals in need afford a healthier diet," said Alexina Jeannite, Community Engagement Director for the CRA. "While the program mainly serves low-income families, the elderly, and people with disabilities, it also serves as an economic stimulus tool to help protect families from hardship and hunger during times of crisis like temporary unemployment due to economic downturn. The current pandemic is another great example of how SNAP resources have and can be a safety net tool to help keep families and individuals afloat in times of crisis." More

Arts Warehouse Resident, "Visual Adjectives"

"Visual Adjectives" is any artistic or literary means to describe the concepts in our mind. Foundationally, it is about our action," Lawrence said. "With an avant-garde approach that forges new paths to make it accessible to everyone, Visual Adjectives offers full-service publishing and helps authors independently publish their book by utilizing our publishing services to access marketing and sales tools. This creates complete customization and advantages that employ our creative team to help meet set goals." More

Carolyn Quince Court

"Through the Carolyn Quince Court apartments, the CRA combined its objective of eliminating slum and blight with its goal to ensure an adequate supply of decent affordable housing by purchasing neglected multi-family buildings and renovating them." More
