5. OLD BUSINESS

A discussion ensued regarding the status of the Ride-along program and the Volunteer Program. Mr. Cannon made an inquiry to the board regarding the Police Advisory brochures and members were provided with an update.

6. NEW BUSINESS

A. Police Advisory Board goals, initiatives and strategic plan for 2022-2023

Members of the board noted that their goal is to educate the community of the existence and scope of the Police Advisory Board. Members of the board expressed interest in attending city events and engage with the Atlantic High School Criminal Justice Program students and Explorer Program. It was reiterated that any issues brought up to members of the board are to be forwarded to the board liaison. A suggestion was made for residents to utilize the Nextdoor app to notify the community of upcoming meetings. Members of the board may individually attend homeowner association meetings and distribute the Police Advisory Board brochures. A discussion ensued regarding the process of city ordinances in relation to the police department and how they are approved by the city commission. Members requested to be involved with the drafting of proposed ordinance that affect the police department and budgetary process. Mr. Strasser distributed a packet containing information regarding existing advisory boards from other cities. Police Advisory Board will draft a memorandum to be presented to City Manager Terrence Moore with items to be discussed at the additional requested meetings, which include:

- Brochure distribution
- Police Advisory Board's community exposure at city events, HOA meetings
- Ordinance reviews that affect the police department (members to attend city commission meetings and/or get educated on agenda items)
- Police Advisory Board's involvement in the budget review process
- Crime Statistics and closed Internal Affairs investigations

7. DISCUSSION CONCERNING NEXT MEETING AGENDA:

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, January 9, 2023, and a presentation regarding cold case investigations will be provided to members of the board.
