5. COMMENTS AND INQUIRIES ON AGENDA AND NON-AGENDA ITEMS FROM THE PUBLIC- IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING PRESENTATIONS:

5.A. City Manager's response to prior public comments and inquiries

Interim City Manager deJesus had no comments.

5.B. From the Public

Susan Kozana made comments about OSHAD and the Preservation Trust relative to Old School Square. Mayor Glickstein said that this matter had been postponed by the State of Florida.

Representative Emily Schlosberg thanked the City Commission for adopting a resolution to make texting while driving a major offense in the State of Florida. She noted that the State of Florida was only one of four states which had texting while driving as a secondary, rather than a primary, offense. Representative Schlosberg thanked the City Commission for all of their efforts.

Kae Jonsons noted that the Delray Beach Library had recently held a spelling event. She thanked Michael Coleman and Janet Meeks for work on this event. Ms. Kossosons noted that many of the participants, including some of the winners, were in attendance this evening.

Anthony Bacchus from the Milagro Center said that the spelling event had empowered many teens. He noted that the teens supported each other throughout the spelling bee.

Santiago Arias said he was very proud of Delray Students First member participants in the spelling event. He emphasized the importance of ensuring that students from economically challenged backgrounds were able to attend college. Mayor Glickstein expressed appreciation to Mark Sauer for all of his efforts on behalf of Delray Students First.

Bernard Wright, President of Delray Rocks, said he was deeply concerned about whether or not the City would renew the existing lease with his organization. Mayor Glickstein said this was a great program for motivating young men.

Alex Farnsworth of the Delray Beach Downtown Authority noted that the Dine Out Delray Beach program was in progress and would continue through Monday, August 7th. He said that the program was intended to raise awareness about the Delray Beach homeless initiative.

Carolyn Patton, a member of the Delray Beach Historic Preservation Trust, said that the Trust was proud to have filed an application, and received designation on the National Register of Historic Places, for the City's Marina District. She noted that this designation was financially advantageous to residents of the district.

Ival Lowe asked whether there was funding in the City budget to clean and pave the alleyways in her neighborhood.

Rob Steele, President and CEO of Old School Square (OSS), said that a public information campaign was in process for OSS. He said that the objective was to create a bold new vision for the campus, including a park-like setting in the near future. Commissioner Petrolia suggested raising the bar by having chess tables available on the grounds of Old School Square. She noted that this was relatively inexpensive to move forward with this initiative.

Dr. Victor Kirson noted that it was estimated that improvements at Old School Square would total $11.5 million. He noted that something as simple as table and chairs would be helpful in upgrading the character of Old School Square.

6. CONSENT AGENDA: City Manager Recommends Approval

Commissioner Katz moved, seconded by Commissioner Chard, to approve the consent agenda as amended. A roll call vote was taken. The motion was adopted unanimously (5-0).

Mitch Thompson, a volunteer at the Caring Kitchen, requested that the City Commission find a way to keep the facility open.

Reggie Cox, representing the Paradise Heights HOA, said it had been twenty-seven months since the City had granted an initial extension to the Caring Kitchen to remain in their present location. Mr. Cox said that Paradise Heights was a single-family neighborhood that had served as the location of the Caring Kitchen for a long time. He stated that it was time for the Caring Kitchen to find another location away from this neighborhood.

Ernestine Holliday, a resident of Westside Heights, said her neighborhood had endured the Caring Kitchen for about twenty years. She expressed hope that the Caring Kitchen would find a new location by October 31st.

Pamela Williams, President of the Rainbow Heights Neighborhood Association, said she and her neighbors favored the mission of the Caring Kitchen but not its present location. She requested that the City Commission ensure that the Caring Kitchen find a new location by October 31, 2017.

Rita Brauner said that she favored the Caring Kitchen's mission but felt that the facility should be moved to a new location with improvements.

Joyce Patrick said that the Caring Kitchen had outgrown its location and needed to be relocated to a commercial area. She requested that the Mayor and the City Commission give a final move out date to the Caring Kitchen this evening.

Dr. Wright said that she lived right across the street from the Caring Kitchen. Noting that Caring Kitchen clients were sleeping under her door and in her father's truck, she requested that the facility be relocated to a commercial area in Delray Beach.

Corey Gault said he supported the mission of the Caring Kitchen. Noting that the facility had been in the same neighborhood and location for twenty years, he said that the deadline for moving needed to be October 31, 2017.

Ari Whiteman said that Cros Ministries had known about the need to move the kitchen facility as soon as possible.

Angie Gray said she supported the mission of the Caring Kitchen, it was time to move the facility.

Patti Alexander said that the Train Depot had originally been identified as a possible new location for the Caring Kitchen. She stated that the effort to find a new location continued.

Reverend Juanita Bryant-Goode said that the Caring Kitchen was respectfully requesting more time to find a new location.

Assistant Fire Chief Greene and Assistant Police Chief Lee noted that both agencies had received numerous calls for service at the Caring Kitchen.

Discussion by members of the City Commission ensued about the Caring Kitchen location and related issues.

Commissioner Katz moved, seconded by Commissioner Petrolia to provide that the Caring Kitchen cease all food distribution and related services at their present location, effective October 31, 2018. Furthermore, the Caring Kitchen may use the present facility for distribution to other ministries for a period of nine additional months. Mr. Lohman suggested that the City Manager be delegated to determine potential breaches of the contract and to cease the contract, if necessary. There was consensus by the City Commission to move forward in this manner.

The question was called and a roll call vote was taken. The motion was adopted unanimously (5-0).
