9. FIRST READINGS:

9.A. None

10. COMMENTS AND INQUIRIES ON NON-AGENDA ITEMS:

10.A. City Manager

Mr. deJesus noted that the Delray Beach Community Redevelopment was requesting a joint meeting with the City Commission during the month of November. There was City Commission agreement to hold the joint meeting on November 14th between 5:00 and 6:00 p.m.

10.B. City Attorney

Mr. Lohman noted that both parties to the Atlantic Crossing developer's agreement were required to execute termination of the agreement by Resolution 71-17. There were no public comments. Mr. Lohman noted that consideration for second hearing for this matter would take place at 6:00 p.m. on October 17, 2017. Commissioner Katz moved, seconded by Vice Mayor Chard, to authorize execution of the termination agreement. The motion was adopted unanimously (5-0).

Mr. Lohman requested City Commission consensus relative to continuation of bike lane litigation. There was agreement by the City Commission for Mr. Lohman to proceed with this matter.

10.C. City Commission

Vice Mayor Chard inquired about plans for City Manager candidates for next Monday evening. Mr. deJesus said that the event would be held at the Delray Beach Golf Club between 5:00 and 7:30 p.m., with City department heads, members of CRA Board and all other advisory boards and other interested parties invited. Vice Mayor Chard inquired whether candidates would be given a tour of the City. Mr. deJesus said that City staff could provide tours if requested.

Vice Mayor Chard inquired about the status of full cost recovery. Mr. deJesus said that City staff was working diligently to review and change the policy as soon as practical.

Vice Mayor Chard said that he had recently walked the west side highway in New York. He said it was amazing to see all of the public/private partnerships in the City. Vice Mayor Chard stated that nearly every building in this area had a rooftop garden, restaurant or bar.

Commissioner Petrolia noted that she had attended the books and barbeque event last weekend. She also said that it was wonderful to see the removal of storm debris from neighborhoods around the City. Commissioner Petrolia noted that she had the opportunity to attend last Monday night's open house at Atlantic Community High School. She said that the teachers were wonderful and the facility was very impressive. Commissioner Petrolia had changed from lecturing in the past to collaboration in the present.

Deputy Vice Mayor Johnson said that she would be going on a short vacation. Deputy Vice Mayor Johnson also stated that she had some concerns about things she had recently heard about. She expressed concern about staff's ability to respond to public records requests. Deputy Vice Mayor Johnson stated that she was excited about the prospect of hiring a new City Manager. She said it would be a lot of hard work to choose one of the two final candidates.

Commissioner Petrolia noted that the Delray Reads program was coming up on November 3rd. She also noted that registration was open to sign up for a school.

Commissioner Katz thanked the CRA for sending a letter to the Mayor indicating that the Executive Director would provide a monthly report to the City Commission. He requested that this matter be calendared on future City Commission meetings.

Commissioner Katz inquired about the possibility of designating parking spaces or making parking permits available to the Lady Atlantic Yacht. Commissioner Petrolia noted that the Community Center at Veteran's Park provided parking passes for the rear view mirror. Commissioner Petrolia said she would be interested in trying to find a solution to the present parking problem. Stating that the Lady Atlantic was iconic in Delray Beach, parking was essential to its operation. Following discussion between the City Commission and City staff, there was consensus for City staff to move forward with the least burdensome approach to staff, involving the usage of parking spaces.

Mayor Glickstein thanked the Delray Beach Historical Society for bringing Harvey Oyer III as a speaker at Old School Square last week. Vice Mayor Chard noted that a number of organizations, the DDA, Old School Square, Chamber of Commerce and Rotary worked together to make Mr. Oyer's appearance possible.

Mayor Glickstein requested that Mr. Lohman and his staff look into ways to make it more difficult to make home rentals into "party houses". Mr. Lohman said that he and his staff would explore this matter in detail.

Commissioner Katz thanked all of the City's first responders for their assistance in ensuring the safety of both the residents of, and visitors to, the City. Mr. deJesus noted that some members of the Police Department would be graduating as certified medics this Friday. Mayor Glickstein gave credit to Mr. deJesus for educating the City Commission about public safety issues. Mr. deJesus noted the importance of being prepared to respond to attacks.

Mr. deJesus said that the City Clerk had an item for the City Commission's consideration. Ms. Johnson said that the Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections was requesting a change in the absentee ballot period from January 30th to February 13th, to December 4th to December 18th. She noted that some other cities had already made the change. Mr. Lohman said that he would work with Ms. Johnson to draft an ordinance for City Commission consideration at a future City Commission meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting stood adjourned at 7:49 p.m.
