10. COMMENTS AND INQUIRIES ON NON-AGENDA ITEMS:

10.A. City Manager

Caryn Gardner-Young, Assistant City Manager, introduced Jennifer Alvarez, Purchasing Director, to provide a detailed explanation of the City's paperless bidding system that they plan to utilize soon. The program will send bids out nationwide and receive bids, as well as tabulate the bids. It will send addendas out also, so there will not be the back and forth with emails and the possibility of missing an item.

A television video was shown to the Commission and audience that was on Channel 12 news regarding mold and unhealthy living conditions in the Rainberry Woods community. Mr. Coleman, Director of Community Improvement and his staff provided an in-depth report regarding the need for extensive improvements to some units at Rainberry Woods. Assistant City Manager, Gardner-Young stated that City staff would continue to work with residents and landlords to improve conditions in the community.

A discussion ensued with the Mayor and Commissioners. The City Attorney stated that it is possible to fine the landlords who did not properly maintain their units.

10.B. City Attorney

The City Attorney gave an explanation of how difficult it is to get an Administrative Warrant from a Judge to enter someone's home for inspection. He explained that the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution protects peoples rights from search and seizure and the City could be sued civilly if the proper warrant was not issued.

Deputy Vice Mayor Johnson suggested inspecting the properties annually when they renew their rental permits to avoid this problem in the future.

10.C. City Commission

Vice Mayor Frankel congratulated Delray Beach resident Kevin Anderson for finishing in second place at the recently completed Wimbledon Tennis Championship.

Commissioner Boylston said that he was pleased by the size and quality of applicant pools for appointments to advisory boards and committees.

Deputy Vice Mayor Johnson thanked the Mayor and her fellow Commissioners for the civility and comraderie on the dais. She also thanked Ms. Liebowitz for managing a very good hiring process for the position of Internal Auditor.

Mayor Petrolia mentioned a celebration at Pompey Park for the senoirs that got their lunch program back up and running. She met with Equity Uptown and had a very positive meeting. She wanted the Commissioners to enjoy their break for a few weeks and will see everyone back in August!

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting was adjourned at 8:43 p.m.
