Ms. Anthea Gianniotis, Director of Development Services, read File No. 2022-083 into the record. Mr. Jeff Costello, with JC Planning Solutions, located at 981 Delray Lakes Drive, Delray Beach, was present on behalf of his client, Jennifer Roselli, the owner of Beach Dogs Day Care & Pet Hotel.

Ms. Roselli, apologized for her inappropriate behavior in the past to city staff and Ms. Gianniotis.

Mr. Costello stated that the purpose of the evening's meeting was to move forward and address the appropriate approvals needed so that Beach Dogs Day Care/Pet Hotel can co-exist harmoniously within the community. He stated that the conditional use application request was to establish a Domestic Animal Services Facility/Pet Hotel with Pet Services as an accessory under LDR Section 4.3.3 (W) Domestic Animal Services, which was adopted in October 2021. Mr. Costello advised that Ms. Roselli had withdrawn her request for outdoor use.

Ms. Gianniotis reported that in October of 2021, the city expanded its code to provide more modern animal use facilities in the city. She stated other issues would be addressed by SPRAB and returned to the Commission if approved. He pointed out that Ms. Roselli lied to the business licensing department about what type of service her business would provide.

Ms. Gelin said that the 300-foot sound barrier was irrelevant now since Ms. Roselli had withdrawn her application for outdoor use. Ms. Gelin acknowledged there were still code violations that Ms. Roselli would have to remedy.

Ms. Gianniotis reported that on March 21, 2022, the Planning and Zoning Board voted 6-1 to approve the conditional use request with the limited hours of 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. and not to allow outdoor use or overnight boarding.

Each Commissioner provided feedback on the presentation.

Vice Mayor Frankel communicated that his decision weighs heavy on the Planning and Zoning Board's vote of 6-1 to approve.

Commissioner Boylston mentioned that in addition to Planning and Zoning's recommendation, he said that the best cities to live in are dog friendly.

Commissioner Johnson expressed her concern that the city had allowed this situation to go on for two years and has only issued fines to the business. She stated that she wasn't in favor of having this service located where it is. Commissioner Johnson suggested instituting a conditional use clause if the Commission approves Resolution No. 58-22.

Deputy Vice Mayor Casale explained that the terms of a conditional use clause could include the language that the Commission sees fit for the city and the business.

Ms. Gelin reminded the Commission that they had directed Code Enforcement staff to create a code relevant to the modern day. She emphasized that Ms. Roselli would have to address her code violations separately from the outcome of Resolution No. 58-22.

Mayor Petrolia confirmed that Ms. Roselli's business license was initially approved for a grooming studio, indicating that Ms. Roselli was deceitful from day one. She mentioned that the surrounding homeowners may not have purchased their homes in that location if they knew a dog kennel would be there.

Mayor Petrolia agreed with the Planning and Zoning Board's recommendations. She acknowledged that it is the Commission's responsibility to advocate for the homeowners.

Ms. Roselli, apologized for her inappropriate behavior in the past to city staff and Ms. Gianniotis.

Mr. Costello stated that the purpose of the evening's meeting was to move forward and address the appropriate approvals needed so that Beach Dogs Day Care/Pet Hotel can co-exist harmoniously within the community. He stated that the conditional use application request was to establish a Domestic Animal Services Facility/Pet Hotel with Pet Services as an accessory under LDR Section 4.3.3 (W) Domestic Animal Services, which was adopted in October 2021. Mr. Costello advised that Ms. Roselli had withdrawn her request for outdoor use.

Each Commissioner provided feedback on the presentation.

Commissioner Boylston mentioned that in addition to Planning and Zoning's recommendation, he said that the best cities to live in are dog friendly.

Commissioner Johnson expressed her concern that the city had allowed this situation to go on for two years and has only issued fines to the business. She stated that she wasn't in favor of having this service located where it is. Commissioner Johnson suggested instituting a conditional use clause if the Commission approves Resolution No. 58-22.

Deputy Vice Mayor Casale explained that the terms of a conditional use clause could include the language that the Commission sees fit for the city and the business.

Ms. Gelin reminded the Commission that they had directed Code Enforcement staff to create a code relevant to the modern day. She emphasized that Ms. Roselli would have to address her code violations separately from the outcome of Resolution No. 58-22.

Mayor Petrolia confirmed that Ms. Roselli's business license was initially approved for a grooming studio, indicating that Ms. Roselli was deceitful from day one. She mentioned that the surrounding homeowners may not have purchased their homes in that location if they knew a dog kennel would be there.
